

What Are Your Observations And What Are Your Trade Executions, If Any?

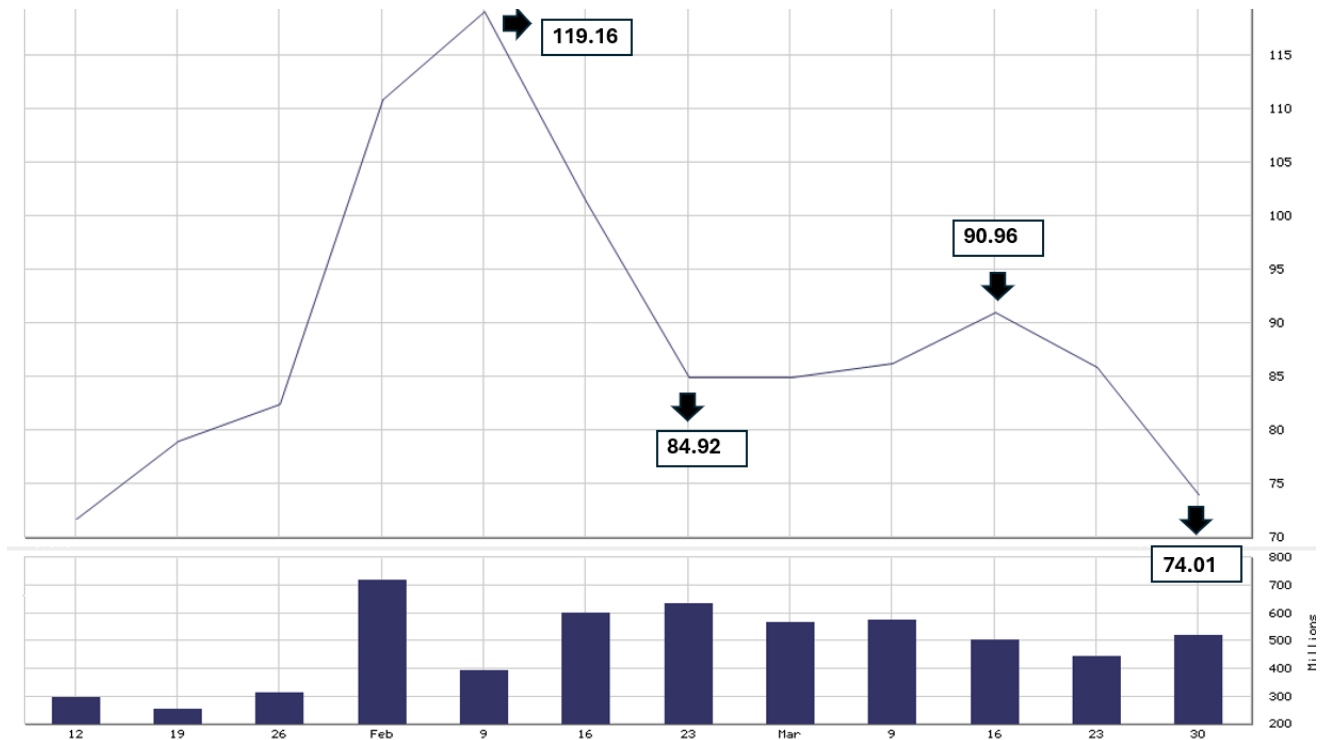

The reader can easily figure out which stock this is. The above chart depicts the time period from Oct 2024 to Jun 2024. The red and the yellow areas show the two back-to-back significant shakeouts. They are shakeouts, now, in hindsight. In real time, they triggered their stops. A close-up of the red area is as shown below.

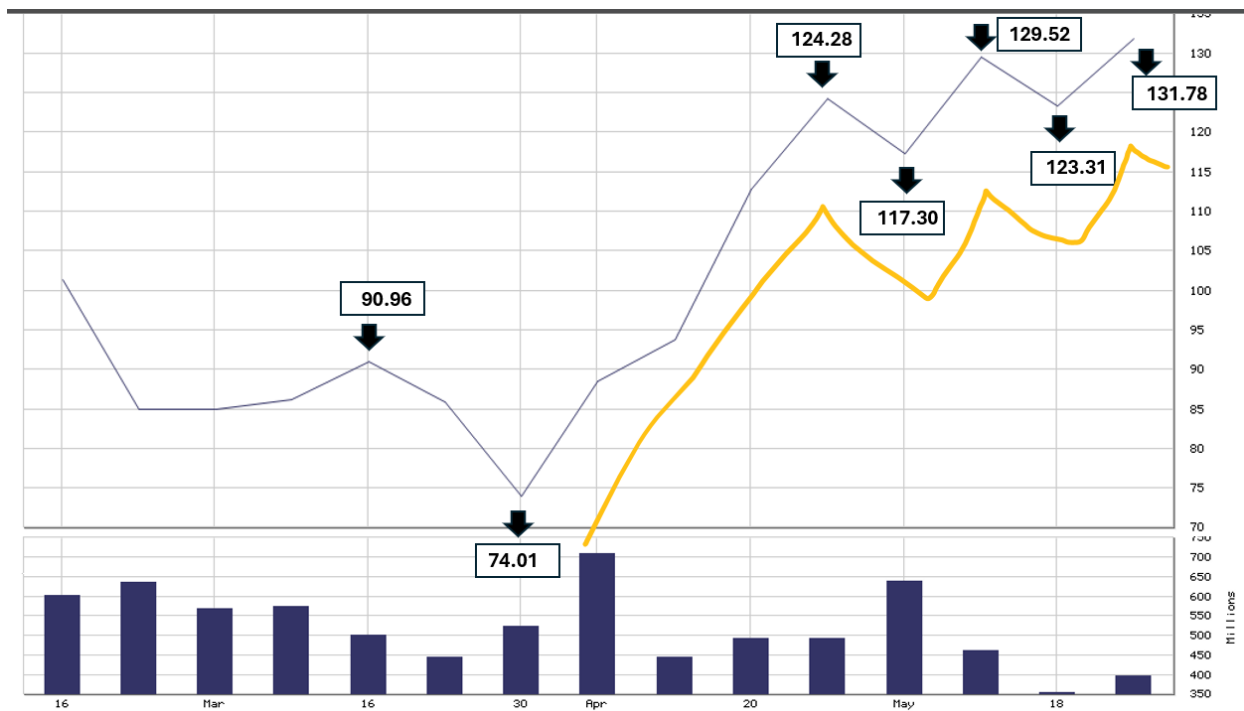

The stop trigger is obvious.

Scroll down for the close-up on the second shakeout, the yellow area.

Clearly, a second stop trigger. Most would throw in the towel. But is the right move if any?

The above chart shows the move until the beginning of Jun 2024, after the second shakeout. Since a speculator stays in the present, all his actions are in real-time. What were his moves, if any?

What if another clue was given as below?
